

About Us

WorkFit Physical Therapy, a unit of Solvis Healthcare, Inc. is committed to providing quality rehabilitation services. We recognize the continuing changes surrounding the delivery of health care today. Thus, we have positioned our services and bilingual staff to accommodate the dynamic needs of all patient populations. WorkFit Physical Therapy team members have an average of 15 years experience in the field of physical rehabilitation. Our staff utilizes state-of-the-art equipment and the most effective and modern treatment techniques in the physical therapy field. Our licensed therapists are devoted to excellence, as they work closely with patients to maximize progress toward their prior level of pain free function. Rehabilitation matters when the outcome results in an improved quality of life.
